by Teresa Hug Alonso, Luca Fluri, Jan Averkin, Patrick Dümmler and Peter Grünenfelder

Part 3 of Avenir Suisse's Erosion Monitor on the status of bilateral relations between Switzerland and the EU focuses on northwestern Switzerland. This is a region of great economic importance for Switzerland which is closely intertwined with the EU internal market and therefore particularly hard hit by any erosion of bilateral relations.

Avenir Suisse is the leading Swiss think tank which promotes open-market ideas in economics, politics and society at large. Although continuing to publish on Switzerland's domestic politics, the think tank aims to address Switzerland's growing importance in the international community and global economy. Avenir Suisse's English-language monthly newsletter aims to reunite people and institutions interested in obtaining regular valuable insights on Switzerland, useful in international discussions and as a source of comparisons.
